

I am highly disappointed that my family and my personal privacy in our home may be allowed to continually imposed upon at all hours of the day or night by the removal of the no call laws in our State. There is no where left in this life that your privacy can be maintained and I have not intent of allowing my life in my own home to be rudely interrupted by telemarketers.